Development Work

By playing a more involved role within an organisation to assist it to develop and bring projects to completion. Examples include BTCV, Wildlife Trust, Bangor Forest Garden & Old Colwyn Environment Federation.

Amenity

Do you have green fingers? Why not help elderly people maintain their gardens? Think grander, help the National Trust keep their Estates in order or organise a Keep Wales Tidy group to maintain a stretch of coastline or river

Abroad

Visit other countries and help them to maintain their countryside! Many opportunities, but some restrictions do apply.

Practical work

Want to help out but unable to commit long term? Bangor Forest garden have once a month week-end workdays to develop their site, BTCV has day projects and Sunday groups and Snowdonia Society leads work-groups from Capel Curig.

Alternative Technologies

Interested in alternative sources of power? Thinking of Sun, Wind and Water? Then the Centre for Alternative Technology at Machynlleth is for you!

Sustainability Issues

Helping to implement projects in the area, covering areas from the environment to economics. There are vacancies with Credit Union, Bangor Forest Garden, Crest Community Composting & Trash & Carry projects and the Sustrans National Cycle network.

Research

Surveying flora and fauna in Conwy with the Countryside Service and The Wildlife Trust.

Choosing a Career?

Did you know...

Your work experience could be with one of these projects

You could bring new ideas to that project

If you want to embark on an environmental career, Volunteering is incredibly important!

Your time could be recognised with the Millennium Volunteers Scheme!

Not all vacancies are for the Great Outdoors. Opportunities are available to assist with the office work, writing newsletters, producing posters or designing a website!
